IT'S THE WEEK TO...

EXPLORE

CAFFÈ DELL'ORO
 Florentine egg overlooking the Ponte Vecchio? Head to Portrait Firenze hotel (£38 for breakfast; £425pp for a room; lungarnocollection.com).

LA MÉNAGÈRE
 For flowers and gifts – also lunch and cocktails – head to this cool concept restaurant (from £41pp for three courses; lamenagere.it).

SANT'AMBROGIO MARKET
 Browse this antique market and stop at nearby Caffè Cibrèo for coffee (mercatosantambrogio.it).

GUCCI GARDEN
 A museum, shop and café conceived by designer Alessandro Michele, this space on Piazza della Signoria is a fiercely floral gem (gucci.com).

PIAZZA DEL DUOMO
 Explore the area around this famous square. Away from landmark buildings the Duomo, Baptistry and Giotto's Campanile are quirky little side streets.

BRANCACCI CHAPEL
 Off the tourist track, this beautiful fresco-painted chapel is nirvana for history and art fans (£8.60 entrance ticket; museumsinflorence.com).

Make the most of 48 hours in... Florence

GUCCI GARDEN HAS EXPANDED ITS GALLERY SPACE, SO NOW'S THE TIME TO VISIT THIS ARTY CITY

PROCACCI 1885
 Take a pit stop for a truffle panino at this Florentine institution. Team it with a glass of champagne (from £2 per panino; procacci1885.it).

FUSION BAR AND RESTAURANT
 Sensational tapas-sized Japanese and Peruvian food served with a party vibe (lungarnocollection.com/the-fusion).

PALAZZO STROZZI GALLERY
 This historic palace, amid the retail luxe of Via de' Tornabuoni, hosts major art exhibitions, such as the retrospective of Natalia Goncharova (palazzostrozzi.org).
